SAFETY RULES AND REGULATIONS

Exhibitors and patrons must comply with all local, state, and federal laws in any firearms or munitions transactions. Gem City Gun Club is not responsible for the legality of any firearms sale; this is the responsibility of the buyer and seller. All firearms are to be unloaded.

No explosives of any kind, with the exception of small quantities of black powder, are permitted. Black powder, gunpowder, and primers should be stored in original sealed containers; small arms ammunition is permitted.

Police your own tables to protect yourself from theft. You must require proper ID when selling firearms and ammo to determine proper age, identity, and legality of sale. No one under the age of 21 is permitted to purchase a handgun or handgun ammo. Minors are not permitted in the show unless accompanied by a parent or legal guardian.

Gem City Gun Club is not responsible for damages or injuries resulting from the actions of exhibitors or patrons. Exhibitors and patrons assume complete liability and responsibility for any and all damages or personal injuries resulting from the use of any item displayed, demonstrated, or sold. In the event of material loss or personal injury, exhibitors and patrons will hold harmless Gem City Gun Club, it's officers, members, and volunteers. Gem City Gun Club reserves the right to refuse admission to anyone. Violation of these rules by a patron or exhibitor is grounds for expulsion from the premises. Payment of the admission fee or space fee is acknowledgement that the exhibitor or patron has read and understands, and agrees to comply, with these safety rules and regulations.
